Power Walk Ministries Announces the Release of Leaders in Heels by Dr. Paul Cannings
Groundbreaking Book Unveils the Hidden Impact of Women in Biblical History

HOUSTON, TX – Power Walk Ministries is proud to announce the release of Leaders in Heels by renowned pastor and biblical scholar Dr. Paul Cannings. This enlightening work challenges traditional perspectives on women's roles in ministry and leadership by examining the lives of prominent women in the Bible.

In Leaders in Heels, Dr. Cannings delves into the stories of biblical heroines such as Mary, Bathsheba, Abigail, Deborah, Phoebe, Lydia, and Mary Magdalene. Through meticulous analysis and rich historical context, he demonstrates how these women made significant impacts through their faith, service, and leadership, despite cultural limitations of their time.

"This book is not just a historical account," Dr. Cannings says. "It's a call to action for today's Christian women to step into their God-given potential and make lasting impacts in their churches, communities, and beyond. It's also a must-read for Christian men to help them appreciate how Jesus Christ shattered stereotypes related to believing women in leadership."

Key features of Leaders in Heels include:

- In-depth analysis of notable women in biblical history
- Fresh perspectives on women's roles in advancing God's kingdom
- Inspirational stories of faith, courage, and profound influence
- Practical insights for modern Christian women seeking to maximize their impact

Dr. Cannings, who holds a Ph.D. in Theology, brings over three decades of ministry experience to this work. As the founder and senior pastor of Living Word Fellowship Church in Houston, Texas, and the founder of Power Walk Ministries, he has dedicated his life to empowering believers through in-depth Bible teaching and leadership development.
